*ACCEPTANCE/REJECTION/CORRECTION

UNANIMOUSLY/BY MAJORITY OF VOTES

- Jurors hold a meeting within thirty days as of the date on which the thesis is submitted to them, and then subject the student to thesis exam.
- The exam can be open to audience. The jury gives its decision with absolute majority, and without audience.
- The exam consists of the sections of thesis presentation made by the student and question-answer.
- Exam duration cannot be less than 45 minutes or more than 90 minutes.
- Personal reports of the jurors about the thesis must be added to the exam report.
- If the jury decided on the rejection or correction of the thesis, the reasons for rejection or the points that need to be corrected must be added to the exam report after they are clearly written on a separate paper and signed by the jury.
- The student, for whose thesis the jury decided on correction, defends his/her thesis again in front of the same jury after making the necessary corrections within maximum six months. If the student fails again in this defense, he/she is dismissed from the University.
- The report will be sent to the institute by the directorate of the department within 3 days following the exam.
- Students who pass the thesis exam must submit seven bound copies of their thesis to the relevant institute within 1 month following the date on which they take the thesis exam.
